

THE MARGINALIZED SELF

Tales of Resistance of a Community

Edited by

Rahul Ghai • Arvind K. Mishra • Sanjay Kumar

Contents

Preface	ix
1. Introduction RAHUL GHAI, ARVIND KUMAR MISHRA and SANJAY KUMAR	1
2. Culture, Development, and Capital of Farce ARUN KUMAR	29
3. Myth, Culture, and Democracy BADRI NARAYAN	61
4. Looking Beyond the Implementation Paralysis in the Indira Awas Yojana: Narratives of the Musahar Community RAFIUL AHMED	82
5. Changing Food Notions and Social Mobility: The Practice of Pig-Rearing by Musahars in South Bihar SANJAY KUMAR	111
6. Power of the Margins: A Critique of Discourse on Underdevelopment ARVIND KUMAR MISHRA	128
Notes on Editors and Contributors	151
Index	153

Editors

Rahul Ghai is Associate Professor, School of Development Studies, IHMR University, Jaipur. His broad areas of work are understanding marginality and human well-being in a transforming India.

Arvind Kumar Mishra is Assistant Professor, Zakir Husain Centre for Educational Studies, JNU, New Delhi. His prime interest is in social psychology, marginality and alternative development.

Sanjay Kumar is a researcher, development practitioner and founder of the Deshkal Society, Delhi. He specializes in apprehending marginality, change and development of oppressed and marginalized communities in India.

Contributors

Rafiul Ahmed • Rahul Ghai • Arun Kumar •
Sanjay Kumar • Arvind Kumar Mishra •
Badri Narayan

Jacket photograph courtesy Sanjay Kumar

Jacket design by Pinaki De

₹ 1095

ISBN: 978-93-89933-80-2

9 789389 933802