INTRODUCTION

Ethics Committees (ECs) play a pivotal role in safeguarding the rights, safety, and well-being of research participants. With the evolving regulatory environment and the implementation of the New Drugs and Clinical Trials Rules (NDCTR), 2019, along with adherence to ICH-GCP (E6 R2) standards, EC members must stay updated with the latest ethical, legal, and procedural requirements governing clinical research in India.

This training program aims to equip Ethics Committee members with the essential knowledge and practical skills necessary to ensure regulatory compliance and maintain ethical integrity in clinical trials.

OBJECTIVES

- To enhance understanding of NDCTR-2019 and its implications for Ethics Committee members.
- To familiarise participants with ICH-GCP principles and international ethical guidelines.
- To strengthen the review, approval, and oversight capabilities of Ethics Committees.
- To discuss case studies and common challenges in ethical review of clinical research.
- To promote best practices for maintaining transparency, accountability, and participant safety.
