“Know your Alumni Episode 2”
TOPIC:	“Understanding Hospital as a Commercial System in Rapidly Changing Healthcare Scenario”
DATE:	11 th September 2020 from 6:00pm to 7:00pm.
VENUE:	IIHMR University, Jaipur, India
SPEAKER:	Dr. Nikhil Tiwari, General Manager – Apollo Hospital, Madurai, Tamil Nadu
NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS:	40 Participants
INTRODUCTION:	The 2 nd episode of the Know Your Alumni series, titled “Understanding Hospital as a Commercial System in Rapidly Changing Healthcare Scenario ” took place on 11 th September at IIHMR University, Jaipur. The session was moderated by Dr. P. R. Sodani, President at IIHMR University. The guest speaker was Dr. Nikhil Tiwari, an alumnus of 11 th Batch HM 2006-08, IIHMR University, Jaipur.
OBJECTIVE:	The primary objective of this study is to analyze the evolving role of hospitals as commercial entities within the rapidly changing healthcare landscape. Specifically, it seeks to: Supporting Goals: 1. Examine how hospitals integrate business principles and market strategies into their operational and management practices. 2. Understand the impact of economic, technological, and policy changes on hospital structures, decision-making, and service delivery. 3. Explore the balance between financial sustainability and the core mission of providing quality patient care. 4. Identify key challenges and opportunities hospitals face as they adapt to competitive and regulatory pressures. 5. Provide insights into how hospitals can innovate and reorganize to remain efficient, patient-centered, and financially viable in the long term.

Salient Novel Points Covered:

Salient Novel Points of Understanding Hospital as a Commercial System in Rapidly Changing Healthcare Scenario:

- Hospitals as Hybrid Institutions
- Shift from Service to Value-Based Models
- Impact of Health Technology and Digital Transformation
- Data-Driven Decision Making

ROLE: Role of Changes in Understanding Hospital as a Commercial System in Rapidly Changing Healthcare Scenario:

Here's a structured explanation of the Understanding Hospital as a Commercial System in Rapidly Changing Healthcare Scenario:

1 Understanding hospitals as commercial systems plays a critical role in reshaping how healthcare is delivered, managed, and sustained in today's rapidly evolving environment. This approach offers several vital contributions:

1. Strategic Resource Management

- Helps administrators make informed decisions on budgeting, staffing, and infrastructure by applying commercial principles like cost-benefit analysis and return on investment (ROI).

2. Ensuring Financial Sustainability

- Encourages hospitals to diversify revenue streams, optimize operational efficiency, and manage risks to remain financially viable amidst rising healthcare costs and policy uncertainty.

3. Enhancing Competitiveness

- Promotes adoption of innovative service models, branding strategies, and technology to compete effectively in a market-driven healthcare landscape.

4. Improving Patient Experience and Outcomes

- Commercial insights drive hospitals to prioritize customer satisfaction, personalize care, and streamline services, ultimately enhancing patient loyalty and clinical results.

5. Adapting to Policy and Regulatory Changes

- Equips hospital leaders with tools to quickly respond to changing government regulations, insurance models, and compliance requirements through strategic planning.

6. Driving Innovation and Technology Integration

- Encourages investment in health IT, telemedicine, AI, and automation to improve service delivery and gain operational advantages.

Q&A and Interactive Session:

Session Objectives:

1. Define the concept of a hospital as a commercial system within the broader healthcare ecosystem.
2. Identify key economic and operational drivers influencing hospital management in a rapidly changing healthcare environment.

3. Examine how market dynamics, technological advancements, and regulatory changes are transforming hospital operations and strategies.

Mini-Presentation (15 mins)

Topic: Key Behavioral Changes

- Policy reforms
- Technological disruption
- Patient expectations
- Economic pressures

Case Study Discussion (15 mins)

Scenario:

" Navigating Growth and Patient Care — The Case of Apex Multispecialty Hospital "

Questions for Group Discussion:

- What commercial challenges is Apex Hospital facing in the current healthcare environment?
- How can Apex integrate business strategies without compromising its care quality?
- Should Apex accept the private equity investment?
- What are the risks (e.g., loss of autonomy)?
- What are the potential benefits (e.g., capital for digitization, marketing, hiring experts)?
- How can the hospital diversify its revenue streams?

Break into small groups or breakout rooms and share findings.

Future Scope: As healthcare systems worldwide continue to evolve, the conceptualization of hospitals as commercial systems will gain even greater relevance. The future scope of this understanding spans across multiple domains:

1. AI and Automation
2. Commercial strategies will focus on long-term patient engagement over episodic treatment.
3. Blockchain and Smart Contracts
4. Commercial success will depend on the ability to demonstrate measurable value in patient outcomes.
5. International Career Opportunities

In the future, hospitals that effectively integrate commercial thinking with compassionate care will lead the industry. Recognizing the hospital as both a healing center and a business entity will be critical to ensuring resilience, relevance, and responsiveness in a complex healthcare environment.

Discuss Organizational and Policy-Level Changes • Examine how government policies, hospital administration strategies, and global health trends are influencing employment dynamics. 4. Prepare the Workforce for a Resilient Future • Highlight the need for digital literacy, flexibility, and crisis-readiness among current and future healthcare professionals. 5. Identify Lessons Learned from the Pandemic • Use the COVID-19 experience to shape sustainable human resource models in health systems. 6. Foster Dialogue on Healthcare Resilience and Workforce Well-being • Encourage reflection and discussion on staff retention, mental health, fair compensation, and workplace safety moving forward.

Salient Novel Points Covered:

This session explores the long-term workforce transformations in healthcare, drawing from the global impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Shift from Reactive to Proactive Workforce Planning

- Health systems are now investing in workforce surge capacity, crisis staffing models, and contingency planning for future health emergencies.

Rise of Non-Traditional Roles in Healthcare

- Increased demand for telehealth coordinators, digital health analysts, infection preventionists, and mental health professional's post-pandemic.

Acceleration of Digital Skills and Tech Integration

- Job security now depends heavily on digital proficiency, as hospitals adopt AI, EHRs, telemedicine, and remote monitoring technologies.

ROLE:

This session plays a critical role in shaping awareness, preparedness, and future planning within the healthcare workforce.

Educates Stakeholders on Emerging Trends

Promotes Workforce Resilience and Adaptability

Identifies Skills and Roles in Demand

Supports Strategic Human Resource Planning

Encourages Dialogue on Job Security and Well-being

Q&A and Interactive Session:

An interactive session on "What to expect after the coronavirus crisis blows over? Future of job security in the health and hospital sectors?" was engaging, informative, and participatory to keep the audience involved while delivering valuable insights.

Future Scope:

The session has broad and long-lasting relevance.

Redefining Job Security in a Dynamic Health Environment

- The concept of job security will evolve to include role flexibility, cross-training, digital adaptability, and crisis readiness.

Sustained Growth in Telehealth and Digital Healthcare Jobs

- Increasing reliance on remote consultations, AI-driven diagnostics, and digital health platforms will create new job categories in healthcare IT and virtual care.

Institutionalization of Workforce Wellness Initiatives

- Post-COVID strategies will place long-term focus on healthcare worker well-being, including mental health support, safe working conditions, and burnout prevention.

Strengthened Role of Public Health and Community-Based Roles

- A growing focus on preventive care, health education, and local health systems will increase demand for public health officers, community health workers, and allied roles.

DATE: 29 th September 2020 from 6:00pm to 7:00pm.
VENUE: IIHMR University, Jaipur, India
SPEAKER: Dr. Nisha Singh, Senior Consultant- Anemia Mukht Bharat, Child Health Division- MoHFW
NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 100
INTRODUCTION: The 8 th episode of the Know Your Alumni series, titled “Action for Nutrition: Insights from Government Policies and Programs” took place on 29 th September 2020 at IIHMR University, Jaipur. The session was moderated by Dr. P.R. Sodani, Pro President at IIHMR University. The guest speaker was Dr. Arunabh Ray, an alumnus of PGDHM (2008- 2010), Batch 13, IIHMR University, Jaipur.
OBJECTIVE: - Understand the Role of Government in Tackling Malnutrition - Highlight key government policies, schemes, and initiatives aimed at improving nutritional outcomes across vulnerable populations. - Analyze the Effectiveness of Nutrition-Focused Programs - Review the impact, reach, and implementation challenges of flagship programs such as POSHAN Abhiyaan, ICDS, Mid-Day Meal Scheme, and others. - Promote Evidence-Based Policymaking - Discuss how data, monitoring, and research are shaping nutrition strategies at national and state levels. - Identify Gaps and Opportunities for Improvement - Pinpoint barriers to effective delivery and explore ways to enhance multi-sectoral coordination and convergence in nutrition programming.
Salient Novel Points Covered: Action for Nutrition: Insights from Government Policies and Programs" This session offers fresh and in-depth perspectives on how government-led actions are shaping nutritional health in India and globally.

1. Shift from Food Security to Nutrition Security

Emphasizes the evolution of policies from calorie-focused food distribution to nutrient-rich, diversified diets.

2. Introduction of the POSHAN Abhiyaan (National Nutrition Mission)

A landmark initiative that integrates technology, convergence, community mobilization, and real-time monitoring to address malnutrition holistically.

3. Use of Digital Tools for Nutrition Monitoring

Novel use of apps like ICDS-CAS (Common Application Software) to track child growth, service delivery, and field-level worker performance.

4. Focus on the First 1000 Days of Life

Policies now prioritize nutrition in the critical window from conception to 2 years, which has lifelong health and development implications.

ROLE:

Action for Nutrition: Insights from Government Policies and Programs"

This session plays a vital role in strengthening the understanding and impact of public nutrition efforts by uncovering how policies translate into action.

Bridging Policy and Practice

Enhancing Awareness and Accountability

Empowering Frontline Workers and Stakeholders

Fostering Multi-Sectoral Collaboration

Identifying Strengths and Gaps in Policy Execution

Supporting National and Global Nutrition Goals

Q&A and Interactive Session:

An interactive session on “Action for Nutrition: Insights from Government Policies and Programs” was engaging, informative, and participatory to keep the audience involved while delivering valuable insights.

Future Scope:

The future of government-driven nutrition initiatives is both promising and essential, especially as global health priorities evolve.

1. Strengthening Data-Driven and Real-Time Nutrition Monitoring

- Expansion of AI-powered dashboards, mobile tracking apps, and geo-tagged data for precise targeting and faster policy response.

2. Deepening Community Ownership and Behavior Change

- A growing emphasis on community-led nutrition governance, empowering local bodies, SHGs, and mothers' groups to drive sustainable outcomes.

3. Integration of Climate-Resilient Nutrition Strategies

- Programs will increasingly address the impact of climate change on food systems and nutrition, promoting sustainable agriculture and local food diversity.

4. Personalized Nutrition via Digital Health Platforms

- Future initiatives may incorporate personalized diet recommendations through mobile apps and wearable health devices, especially in urban and adolescent populations.
