Dear Madam/Sir,

Warm greetings from Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society (JEEViKA)!!

I hope this email finds you in good health. We are reaching out to express our keen interest in participating in your institute's upcoming recruitment session for the Young Professional position, specifically targeting final-year students.

Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society, commonly known as JEEViKA, operates as a registered society under the Rural Development Department of the Government of Bihar. It holds a prominent role in advancing rural development & poverty alleviation within the state. JEEViKA was established by the Government of Bihar in 2005 as a specialized entity with the overarching goals of:

- Improving rural livelihoods and enhancing social and economic empowerment of the rural poor.
- Developing organizations of the rural women and producers to enable them to access and better negotiate services, credit and assets from public and private sector agencies and financial institutions.
- Playing a catalytic role in promoting development of microfinance, agribusiness sectors and health nutrition and sanitation services.

Over the period, JEEViKA has mobilized women from 1.3 crore households into strong, sustainable and self-managed 10.4 lakh Self-Help Groups (SHGs). JEEViKA has deeply influenced the rural and social development policies of the state, wherein organization of poor-rural women into strong community institutions is now a central strategy in tackling Bihar's rural poverty.

Young Professional Program

To manage a large-scale poverty reduction project, the project required a modern human resources system with appropriate staff incentives and organizational development. From the outset, the project has developed a modern human resources system that included recruitment, induction and performance management processes as JEEViKA considered that having competent staff was critical in the project's successful rollout and implementation. One of the key factors for the project's success is JEEViKA's dedicated and professional human resource structure for managing performance and livelihoods promotion. The Young Professional Program was an initiative in this direction.

Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society or JEEViKA in its endeavor to develop a talented pool of Development Professionals initiated Young Professionals Program in 2012 wherein fresh post-graduates/graduate from premiere academic institutes is recruited. The Young Professionals Program in JEEViKA is a competitive program targeting

2	Laptop Usage Allowance	Rs 1500/month
3	Annual Performance Incentive	Up to Rs 50000/-
4	Annual Increment	Rs 5000/-
5	Other Benefits	TA/DA, Self-Learning Benefits
6	Mediclaime	Rs 3 lakh
7	Accidental Coverage	Rs 8 lakh

Remuneration:

During Training Period:

- Consolidated pay- Rs.40000/month,
- Laptop usage-Rs 1500/month (personal laptop only)

The eligibility criteria for YP are.

- 2022-24 Batch
- Individuals should be under the age of 30.

To be competitive in the selection process, candidates with a combination of the following attributes are highly desirable:

- S/he should have strong passion for working with the economically disadvantaged.
- S/he should have ability to work effectively in team.
- S/he should have a commitment to undertake grassroots level assignments and stay with rural poor community.
- S/he should be proficient in Hindi or English and one regional language.

Dear Madam/Sir,

Warm greetings from Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society (JEEViKA)!!

I hope this email finds you in good health. We are reaching out to express our keen interest in participating in your institute's upcoming recruitment session for the Young Professional position, specifically targeting final-year students.

Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society, commonly known as JEEViKA, operates as a registered society under the Rural Development Department of the Government of Bihar. It holds a prominent role in advancing rural development & poverty alleviation within the state. JEEViKA was established by the Government of Bihar in 2005 as a specialized entity with the overarching goals of:

- Improving rural livelihoods and enhancing social and economic empowerment of the rural poor.
- Developing organizations of the rural women and producers to enable them to access and better negotiate services, credit and assets from public and private sector agencies and financial institutions.
- Playing a catalytic role in promoting development of microfinance, agribusiness sectors and health nutrition and sanitation services.

Over the period, JEEViKA has mobilized women from 1.3 crore households into strong, sustainable and self-managed 10.4 lakh Self-Help Groups (SHGs). JEEViKA has deeply influenced the rural and social development policies of the state, wherein organization of poor-rural women into strong community institutions is now a central strategy in tackling Bihar's rural poverty.

Young Professional Program

To manage a large-scale poverty reduction project, the project required a modern human resources system with appropriate staff incentives and organizational development. From the outset, the project has developed a modern human resources system that included recruitment, induction and performance management processes as JEEViKA considered that having competent staff was critical in the project's successful rollout and implementation. One of the key factors for the project's success is JEEViKA's dedicated and professional human resource structure for managing performance and livelihoods promotion. The Young Professional Program was an initiative in this direction.

Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society or JEEViKA in its endeavor to develop a talented pool of Development Professionals initiated Young Professionals Program in 2012 wherein fresh post –graduates/ graduate from premiere academic institutes is recruited. The Young Professionals Program in JEEViKA is a competitive program targeting
