Executive Summary

Dr. P. R. Sodani

President

IIHMR University, Jaipur

I am delighted to share the remarkable strides we have taken in fostering academic excellence, global collaboration, research, and community engagement, in the month of February 2025. This month has reflected our university's commitment to innovation, inclusivity, and transformative education.

The Alumni Meet 2025 – “Ekatva,” one of the most awaited events of the year, was a resounding success. It was an honor to welcome Padma Vibhushan Dr. R.A. Mashelkar as the Guest of Honor. With over 200 alumni joining from across the world – the event underscored the unwavering camaraderie of our university community and the significant contributions of our alumni in diverse fields.

The highly anticipated Global Health Management Research Conference (GHMRC 2025), "PRADNYA," with the theme "Transformative Solutions for Managing Global Health," continued our legacy of thought leadership. The event featured four thematic tracks exploring vital aspects of global health management and attracted over 600 participants. The key highlight of the conference was the signing of 12 national and international MoUs, fostering future collaborations. The standout session was the panel discussion on “Future of Health Management Education,” offering visionary insights and innovative perspectives. During the conference ‘The Conference Souvenir (PRADNYA-GHMRC 2025)’ and the book, ‘VIKSIT BHARAT: Paradigm of Development and Healthcare Sector’ were also released.

We launched the Employee Value Proposition (EVP) and Student Value Proposition (SVP), reinforcing our commitment to dynamic work and academic environment. Our participation in the 6 km Dream Run at Jaipur Marathon 2025, and the NSS initiatives including a free dental checkup, oral & breast cancer awareness camp, and voter awareness campaign showcased our dedication to public health and social responsibility.

On the academic and research front, we conducted workshops on writing research proposals, digital evaluation tools, behavioural insights, and human-centred design. February also witnessed numerous research paper & book chapter publications, and faculty/staff participation in academic forums. Industry-academia collaborations played a pivotal role, with 30 interactions bridging the gap between theory and practice. Our Know Your Alumni and Master Class series offered students valuable insights through interactive sessions with national and international speakers, emphasizing the global significance of our discussions. Additionally, our students also benefited from various exposure visits, enhancing their practical learning experience.

As we move forward, these achievements inspire us to push the boundaries of knowledge and innovation. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our faculty, staff, students, and partners for their dedication and contribution to our success. Let us continue this momentum, shaping the future of healthcare management and research together.
