"Know your Alumni Episode 64"

"Know your Alumni Episode 64"

TOPIC: "Building an Innovative Public Health Career in the Digital World"

DATE: 12th November 2024 4:30 PM to 5:30 PM IST.

VENUE: New Auditorium Part A, IIHMR University Jaipur.

SPEAKER: Mr. Rahul Pandey, Senior Operations Officer World Bank Group, South Asia

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 121 students from 1st year MBA (Hospital and Health Management).

INTRODUCTION: The 64th episode of Know Your Alumni, titled "Building an Innovative Public Health Career in the Digital World," was held on November 12, 2024, at IIHMR University Jaipur. This session featured a guest speaker, Rahul Pandey (Senior Operations Officer World Bank Group, South Asia). Mr. Vinod Tejwani moderated the event, and the Dean of Placements and Alumni Relations and student moderator Dr. Anirudh Kumar Halder from the HM-29, moderated the event. The session focuses on: "Building an Innovative Public Health Career in the Digital World"

OBJECTIVES:

Data Literacy: Develop data analysis and interpretation skills to inform evidence-based decision-making and policy development.

Policy Advocacy: Advocate for policies that promote digital health equity and access to technology in underserved populations.

SALIENT NOVEL POINTS COVERED:

ROLE: Mr. Rahul Pandey provided an insightful session on building an innovative public health career in the Digital world. He highlighted the dynamics of the public health industry and how data plays an important role in advancing public health. He also emphasized the various shortcomings and challenges of public health. He also explained how Digital Technology may help overcome health sector challenges and build value, and why digital health records are important.

KEY TAKEAWAY POINTS FROM THE SESSION:

- Understanding the public health industry as a career option.
- Evolving roles in this sector and how well knowledge in this sector is going to play an important role.
- Effective digital health tools help improve frontline worker's delivery of services and strengthen their capacities.
- Comprehensiveness means moving away from an ad hoc solution approach to make a digital part of the health system.
- Career options: Healthcare AI and ML, digital and data governance, focus on public policy from a digital lens.
- Being a subject matter expert specifically for developing digital tools.

Q&A and Interactive Session: The session encouraged students' active participation and asked them questions about public health as a career. It also asked relevant questions on how to develop their data skills to grow more in this industry and progress further in their careers.

Future scope:

Digital tools will allow for more tailored health interventions, leveraging data from wearables and mobile apps to create personalized health plans. They will also enhance global health monitoring, facilitating faster response to health crises and improved coordination among international health organizations. As digital health expands, there will be a growing need for policies and regulations to ensure the ethical use of data, protect privacy, and address disparities in access.

Appropriate caption for the webinar: 'Building an Innovative Public Health Career in the Digital World' – where technology meets health for a brighter future!"
