VENUE: IIHMR University, Jaipur (ONLINE MODE)
SPEAKER: Dr. Jeehan Abdul Gaffar, International Development Expert, USA)
NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 38 MPH students/External Audiences (Yemen, Somalia, and others)
INTRODUCTION: The Master Class 139 session titled “Fostering International Development and Stability in Fragile and Conflict-Affected Countries” was held on 30th August 2025 at IIHMR University in online mode. The session was coordinated by Dr. Nadeen Abduljabbar, an MPH-IS student from Yemen, was moderated by Dr. Piyusha Majumdar, Associate Professor and Program Coordinator, SD Gupta School of Public Health. The guest speaker, Dr. Jeehan Abdul Gaffar, is an international development expert, currently serving as a senior advisor to the World Bank Group Board of Directors, providing strategic guidance on corporate policy and operational priorities.
OBJECTIVE: The objective is to explore strategies and initiatives that promote development and stability in regions dealing with conflict and instability.
SALIENT NOVEL POINTS COVERED 1)Why fragile and Conflict situations matter Dr. Jeehan explains that the conflict areas all over the world are increasing, and have their consequences, such as food insecurity, homelessness, and decreased GDP, which lead to an increase in the burden on poverty and human suffering. 2)How to Support the Fragile and Conflict-Prone Countries: supporting many countries that have fragile, semi-functioning, or non-functioning health systems. Dr.Jeehan explores that through the given example of Yemen and Somalia, and explains the importance of supporting human life dignity, peace as a development dividend, and breaking the cycle of fragility, and all that is considered a smart investment with a high return of prevention. Many activities should be done, such as healthcare service training, hospital rehabilitation, and health governance improvement. 4)Becoming Agent: the speaker highlights the necessity of using health diplomacy, standing in solidarity, and strengthening the social fabric, addressing inequities, building trust & resilience, in addition to promoting peace.

Q&A and Interactive Session: The session featured a lively Q&A where students and the external Audience asked questions related to how we can address the development and emergency response in those countries with the war duration for more than 10 years, and what are the best strategies for such goals.

Conclusion: It was insightful session with different health professionals from different countries and future health leaders.
