on
Alumni Meet, Jaipur,
January 27th, 2019

Background

The IIHMR University organized an alumni meet on the 27th of January 2019 at Jaipur Campus. The basic motto behind this meet was to strengthen alumni relations and providing a platform for IIHMR students to interact with their role models. At the same time, it helps alumni to meet with their former teachers, and other staff members.

More than 150 former students turned up to pay their respects to their alma mater from IIHMR's extensive portfolio of MBAs in the fields of healthcare, pharmaceutical and rural management. For the 1998 batch this was their 20-year reunion and for the 2007 batch it was their 10-year reunion.

In the morning, a cricket match was organised between the alumni and the current students to cherish good old days, followed by a 'Mindful Leadership Exercise Workshop'.

The event was made more memorable with the sufi-like environment created by songs from the poet Kabir's timeless verses rendered to life by Ms. Virmani on her traditional 'manjira' percussion instrument accompanied by her assorted ensemble and troupe. Shabnam Virmani is a documentary film maker and artist in residence at the Srishti School of Art, Design and Technology in Bangalore since 2002. Co-founder of the Drishti Media Arts and Human Rights collective, she has directed several documentaries, some of which have won awards. In 2002, she co-directed an award-winning community radio program with the Kutch Mahila Vikas Sangathan in Gujarat. She has won the Special Jury Prize at the 58th National Awards, June 2011 for her film 'Kabira Khada Bazaar Mein'.

In the inaugural session Mr. Abhishek Dadhich, Faculty Coordinator welcomed the alumni and expressed his thanks to the alumni for gracing the occasion despite their busy schedule. He requested everyone to continue this trend and requested to keep the connect in future too.

Prof (Dr.) S. D. Gupta, Chairman, IIHMR University while addressing the gathering expressed his sincere thanks and gratitude to all the alumni for their valuable presence. He said, three decades ago when we started off, we were a small group and if we talk today, we are a large family, our alumni whether from healthcare, pharma or rural management streams have left a deep impact not only in this country, but around the world. Our alumni bring laurels to IIHMR University. And the University honours these former fellows by hosting this reunion and catching up on where we stand, suggestions for improvement and evaluation of how things have changed since these students last sat in these halls.

Prof (Dr) Pankaj Gupta, President, IIHMR University also expressed his happiness and deep sense of pride over the role which the alumni are contributing in the different sectors of healthcare domain namely hospital, health, pharma streams. He said, it is to the students that the University owes its existence and sustenance.

IIHMR University's former and current students have brought many laurels to the country and the academy and they should be given a platform to increase engagement as part of a community with shared values and ethos. These former students comprise the pillars of the healthcare system in India by which its citizens are enabled to access affordable and quality healthcare, medicines and development insights. IIHMR continues to learn from them and draw strength and inspiration from their contributions.

Col. Dr. Ashok Kaushik, Professor cum Proctor and Dean (Academics) proposed the vote of thanks. He expressed his thanks and gratitude to the IIHMR University Chairman and President for their valuable presence, support and guidance for making the alumni meet a successful event. Also thanked all alumni for taking the time out from their busy schedule for the Alumni Meet and expressed his delight for making it a memorable event. He thanked the various organizers of the event and the management of the university for making the alumni meet a grand success.

Two videos, the first showcasing the IIHMR University, Jaipur campus and the second one containing messages from the faculty and staff were shown to the alumni, which literally took them down the memory lane.

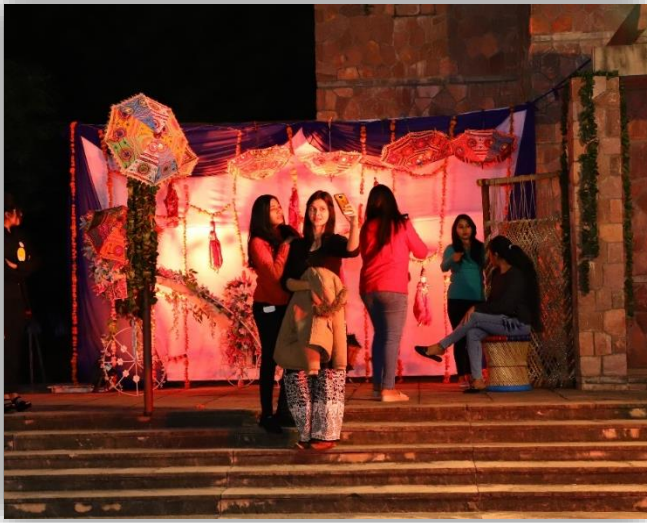

Our senior alumni were honoured with the memento for their constant contribution, mentorship, and maintaining a good relationship with the institute. The mementos were presented by our Chairman, Prof (Dr) S.D. Gupta and President, Prof (Dr) Pankaj Gupta & Dean Academics, Col. (Dr) Ashok Kaushik.

The floor was then opened for interaction with the alumni present on the occasion. The alumni introduced themselves and shared their experiences during their study time in IIHMR and their professional journey during their service tenure. They thanked the IIHMR U team for rolling down the initiative of alumni meet. The meet helped them to reconnect with their batchmates once again. The gala dinner in the evening provided a great opportunity for network build-up.
