CIRCULAR

Celebration of World Environment Day

This is to inform all concerned that IIHMR University, Jaipur, will be organizing an activity to mark World Environment Day on 5 June 2024 at the area behind the New Auditorium on the University campus.

World Environment Day, instituted by the United Nations and observed annually on 5 June, highlights global environmental priorities. The theme for this year is “Land Restoration, Desertification, and Drought Resilience.” In alignment with the University’s commitment to environmental sustainability and green initiatives, a tree plantation drive will be conducted involving the planting of fruit-bearing, medicinal, and evergreen saplings within the campus.

The event will be attended by university leadership, faculty members, officers, staff, and other students as part of the institution’s ongoing efforts toward environmental conservation.
