Celebration of International Men's Day

The School of Development Governance & Social Policy and Public Health (SDG-SPH), in collaboration with the Centre for Gender Studies, IIHMR University, Jaipur, will be organizing activities to mark International Men's Day. The celebration aims to recognize positive male role models, promote gender harmony, and appreciate contributions made by members of the university community and supporting staff.

The observance will include creative and engagement-based activities such as rangoli making, poster creation and message writing, awareness through social media outreach, and appreciation initiatives recognizing the efforts of support staff and service providers associated with the campus.
