Grand Innovation Health Challenge 4.0

IIHMR University, Jaipur, in collaboration with IIHMR Startups (a unit of IIHMR Foundation), successfully organized the Grand Innovation Health Challenge 4.0 on 19 October 2024 at the university campus.

The event served as a dynamic platform to promote innovation in healthcare, bringing together changemakers, innovators, and early-stage healthcare startups from across the country. The challenge encouraged collaborative and creative solutions to address pressing healthcare challenges through technology-driven and sustainable approaches.

Conceptualized under the visionary leadership of Dr. P. R. Sodani, President, IIHMR University, the initiative aimed to empower emerging entrepreneurs and strengthen the healthcare innovation ecosystem. Participants showcased innovative solutions across diverse domains such as AI-enabled healthcare, lifestyle improvement solutions, traditional medicine integration, and medical tourism.

The event reinforced IIHMR University's commitment to fostering innovation, entrepreneurship, and impactful healthcare solutions through industry-academia collaboration.
