Celebration of National Girl Child Day 2025

The Centre for Gender Studies, in collaboration with the Gender Champion Club, will observe National Girl Child Day on 24 January 2025 at IIHMR University, Jaipur, with the theme “Empowering Girls for a Bright Future.”

The program will include interactive and engaging activities focusing on health, hygiene, nutrition, physical well-being, and creativity. Planned activities include awareness sessions on sanitation and healthy habits, recreational games, creative art activities, and a guided campus tour designed to provide a meaningful and joyful learning experience.

The initiative aims to promote gender equality, child well-being, and awareness about the importance of empowering the girl child through education, health, and social inclusion.

All concerned members are encouraged to support and participate in making this initiative impactful and memorable.
