Management Development Programme

on

Accreditation of Health Care Facilities

March 10 - 14, 2027

Background

Healthcare organizations are increasingly focused on quality, patient safety, regulatory compliance, and continuous improvement. Accreditation provides a structured framework to standardize healthcare processes, strengthen patient safety, improve organizational performance, and demonstrate commitment to quality.

This programme equips healthcare professionals with practical knowledge of accreditation frameworks, standards interpretation, documentation, internal assessment, quality improvement, and accreditation readiness.

Objectives

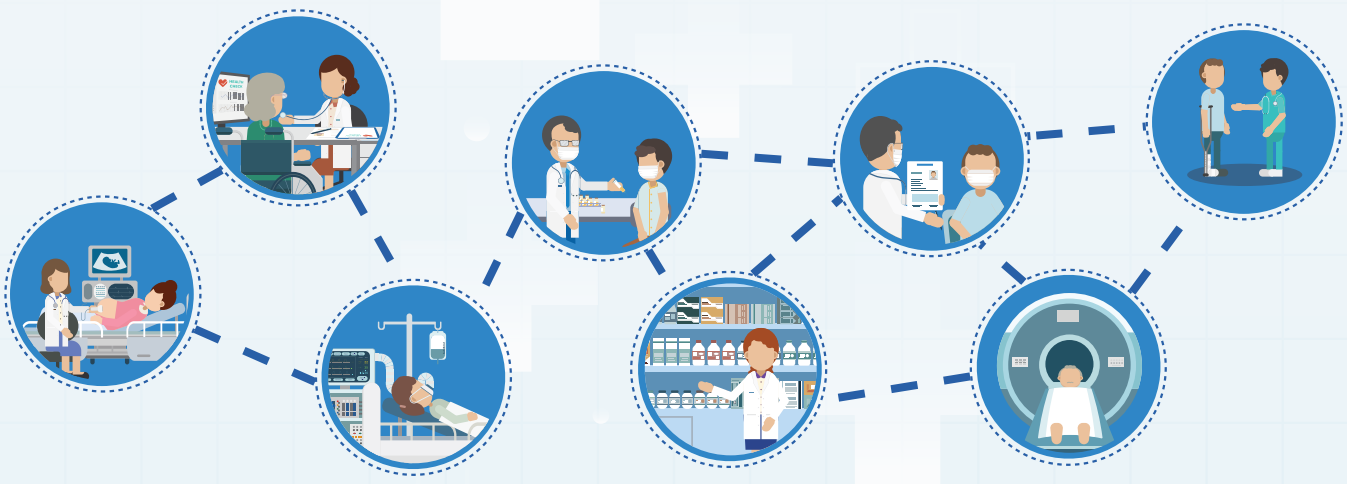

- Understand the principles of healthcare quality, accreditation, and patient safety.
- Interpret and apply NABH/NQAS standards across healthcare settings.
- Develop skills in documentation, compliance monitoring, internal assessment, and auditing
- Apply quality indicators, gap analysis, corrective actions, and improvement approaches.
- Develop an accreditation readiness and implementation roadmap for healthcare organizations.

Course Contents

- Healthcare Quality & Accreditation: Concepts, evolution, dimensions, accreditation, certification and licensure
- Accreditation Frameworks: NABH, NQAS and applicability across healthcare settings.
- Standards Interpretation & Documentation: Understanding standards, objective elements, documentation and compliance.
- Internal Assessment & Auditing: Audit planning, assessment tools, tracer methodology and audit findings.
- Quality & Patient Safety: Quality indicators, risk reduction, patient safety and corrective action planning.
