About Goa

The magnificent scenic beauty and the architectural splendours of its temples, churches and old houses have made Goa a fi rm favourite with travellers around the world. But then, Goa is much more than just beaches and sea. It has a soul which goes deep into unique history, rich culture, and some of the prettiest natural scenery that India must offer. Having been the meeting point of races, religions and cultures of East and West over the centuries, Goa has a distinctive lifestyle quite different from the rest of India.

The state of Maharashtra borders Goa on the north, the state of Karnataka on the south and east.The vast expanse of the Arabian Sea on the west forms the magnificent coastline for which Goa is justify famous. Goa us serviced by an international/national airport located at Dabolim near Vasco. The vast green expanse of the Sahyadri mountain range ensures that Goa has an abundance of water.

The tourist season in Goa begins in late September and carries on through early March. The weather in these months is usually dry and pleasantly cool. Besides the natural beauty the fabulous beaches and sunshine, travellers to Goa love the laidback, peaceful, warm and friendly nature of the Goan people. After all, more than anywhere else on planet earth, this is a place where people really know how to relax.
