

Full Name: Laxman Swaroop Sharma

Academic Credentials:

M.Phil. (Sociology), University of Rajasthan, Jaipur; MA(Economics), University of Rajasthan, Jaipur; MA (Sociology), University of Rajasthan, Jaipur; BA (Eco, Socio, Maths), University of Rajasthan, Jaipur

Specialization:

Survey Research, Health Systems Research.

Research Interests: Maternal and Child Health, Household survey, Public Health facility-based research and Mapping and Listing.

Selected Publications:

Sodani, P. R., Rajeev K. Kumar, J Srivastava, & Laxman Sharma. Measuring Patient Satisfaction in Public Health Facilities of M. P. Indian Journal of Community Medicine, Vol. 35.1: 52-56, Jan 2010.

J.P. Singh, S.D. Gupta, Anoop Khanna, Laxman Sharma. Prevalence of Obstetric Fistula and Associated Factors in Rajasthan, India. Journal of Health Management, Vol. 21.2: 193-198, June 2019.

Professional Biography:

Laxman Swaroop Sharma is an Assistant Professor at IIHMR University, Jaipur. He is a sociologist with an experience of more than 19 years in health sector. He has done master's in Economics, Sociology and M. Phil in Sociology from University of Rajasthan, Jaipur. He has expertise in Health Systems, District Action Planning, Health Survey Research and Program Evaluations in the sector of maternal and child health. He has conducted many scientific Qualitative and Quantitative research projects. He played a key role in national and international large-scale sample survey like Afghanistan Mortality Survey (Afghanistan), National Family Health Survey (NFHS-INDIA), District Level Household Survey (DLHS) under RCH program & Global Adult Tobacco Survey (GATS) Punjab and Chandigarh. He has published research papers in reputed journals. He has been teaching sociology in PGDRM program. His current areas of interest are Health system, IEC-BCC, Project Management and capacity building of NGOs.