2. EVENT DETAILS

IIHMR University hosted a distinguished delegation from the Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia on June 19, 2026, marking an important milestone in the University's efforts to strengthen international academic engagement and global partnerships. The visit was aimed at exploring opportunities for collaborative initiatives between leading universities in Indonesia and IIHMR University in public health and healthcare management.

The delegation comprised Prof. Fuad, PhD, Attaché of Education and Culture; Mr. Yudi Fitriandi, Minister Counsellor; and Ms. Ni Made Mahatma Devi, Third Secretary (Politics). The visiting dignitaries held detailed discussions with Dr. P. R. Sodani, President, IIHMR University, Jaipur, focusing on academic collaboration, institutional partnerships, faculty and student exchanges, and joint initiatives.

The interaction highlighted mutual interest in developing joint research projects, training programmes, exchange visits, and shared academic activities to promote cross-country learning and capacity building. Both sides expressed intent to build sustainable academic linkages that contribute to knowledge exchange and strengthen public health and healthcare management education.

The visit reaffirmed the shared commitment of the Embassy of Indonesia and IIHMR University to promoting academic excellence, global learning, and international cooperation in health-related fields. It also reinforced IIHMR University's role as a key institution for international collaboration and multi-country engagement in the South and South-East Asia region.
