2. EVENT DETAILS

IIHMR University inaugurated a new Nescafé outlet on its campus on March 16, 2026. The outlet is located behind the University library and was established to provide a dedicated refreshment and interaction space for the campus community.

The inauguration marked the addition of a convenient campus facility intended to support informal interaction and engagement among faculty members, staff, and students. The outlet provides freshly prepared Nescafé beverages and refreshments in an accessible location within the University campus.

The new facility is expected to contribute to a more vibrant and welcoming campus environment by creating a common space for conversations, relaxation, and informal networking. It also enhances the overall campus experience by offering convenient refreshment services to members of the IIHMR University community.

The inauguration reflects the University's continued efforts to improve campus amenities and create a comfortable, engaging, and student-friendly learning environment.
