2. EVENT DETAILS

IIHMR University, Jaipur, observed the birth anniversary of Late Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji on Thursday, January 1, 2026. The programme was organised to remember and honour the life, vision, and contributions of Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji, a visionary Indian entrepreneur, philanthropist, and the founder of the Transport Corporation of India (TCI) Group.

The observance provided an opportunity for the IIHMR community to pay tribute to the institution's guiding force and acknowledge his contribution to the development of organisations committed to education, healthcare, and social progress. His entrepreneurial vision, philanthropic values, and commitment to institution-building continue to inspire the University community.

During the programme, members of IIHMR University recalled Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji's values and legacy. The interaction emphasised the importance of visionary leadership, compassion, integrity, institution-building, and service to society.

The programme brought together members of the University community to commemorate the birth anniversary and reflect on the principles associated with Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji's life and work. The observance also reinforced the University's continued commitment to preserving and promoting the values of its founder and guiding institution-builder.

Overall, the programme was a meaningful tribute to Late Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji and served as a reminder of his enduring contribution to entrepreneurship, philanthropy, and the development of IIHMR University.
