Event Details & Description: Orientation and Training Session of Scopus Database, August 11, 2026, One Day_The University Library, IIHMR University, Jaipur, successfully facilitated access to the Scopus Database for the benefit of faculty members of the University.

To create awareness and promote effective utilization of the database, an Orientation and Training Session on Scopus & Scopus AI was also organized.

The activity helped create awareness about the availability and effective use of the Scopus Database among the University community.

The training session provided participants with practical guidance on using Scopus for literature searching, identifying relevant research, tracking citations, and exploring research trends. The introduction to Scopus AI further enhanced awareness of emerging AI-supported research discovery tools.

Budget: Our program was not budgeted
