2. EVENT DETAILS

IIHMR University, in association with Santokba Durlabhji Memorial Hospital (SDMH), Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, and the National Service Scheme (NSS), organised the P. D. Agarwal Blood Donation Drive 2026 on 17th September 2026.

The blood donation drive was held in loving memory of Late Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji (1920–1982), a visionary entrepreneur, philanthropist, and founder of the Transport Corporation of India (TCI) Group. He is remembered for transforming logistics systems, promoting inclusive rural development, and fostering a culture of trust, professionalism, and excellence. His values continue to inspire institutions and leaders across generations.

The drive aimed to:

- Encourage voluntary blood donation among students, faculty, and staff of IIHMR University.
- Contribute to saving lives by supporting the availability of safe and adequate blood for patients in need.
- Promote a culture of social responsibility, compassion, and community service within the University community.
- Honour the legacy of Shri P. D. Agarwal Ji through a meaningful and life-saving initiative.

Members of the IIHMR University community were encouraged to participate in this noble initiative. The event provided a structured and safe environment for blood donation, with medical support and screening facilitated by Santokba Durlabhji Memorial Hospital (SDMH) and the organising teams.

The blood donation drive reflected IIHMR University's commitment to social impact, public health, and nation-building. It also reinforced the values of empathy, service, and collective responsibility among students and staff, aligning with the University's focus on holistic development and community engagement.
