2. EVENT DETAILS

IIHMR University, Jaipur, organised an insightful Awareness Session on #RunForZeroHunger on 10th September 2026, in collaboration with Vedanta and the Anil Agarwal Foundation (AAF). The session was held at the New Auditorium, IIHMR University, from 4:00 PM onwards.

The initiative focused on creating awareness about Zero Hunger, one of the core United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDG 2), and encouraging active youth and institutional participation toward addressing food security and nutrition challenges.

Key highlights of the session included:

- Insights into the #RunForZeroHunger initiative and its alignment with SDG 2 (Zero Hunger).
- An overview of the upcoming Vedanta Delhi Half Marathon 2026 and the StepSetGo Challenge, designed to mobilise youth participation and promote health, fitness, and social impact.
- An interactive discussion on youth engagement and social impact, exploring how students and young professionals can contribute to ending hunger and improving nutrition through collective action, advocacy, and community initiatives.

The session provided participants with an understanding of the scale and urgency of hunger and malnutrition in India and globally. It highlighted the role of multi-stakeholder partnerships, corporate social responsibility, and youth-led movements in advancing food security and sustainable development.

Through presentations and interactive dialogue, the session encouraged students to reflect on their roles as change-makers and to consider practical ways of contributing to Zero Hunger through volunteering, awareness-building, lifestyle choices, and future career pathways in public health, development, and social impact.

The event reinforced IIHMR University's commitment to the SDGs, social responsibility, and holistic student development. It also strengthened the University's collaboration with Vedanta and AAF in promoting youth engagement, health, and sustainable development.
