2. EVENT DETAILS

Sankalp: NSS, IIHMR University presented “Swachhotsav 2026”, a celebration of cleanliness and collective responsibility, on 2nd October 2026, on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. The programme was organised from 9:30 AM onwards under the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi’s vision of a clean India and in alignment with the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

Inspired by Gandhiji’s emphasis on cleanliness, dignity of labour, and community service, Swachhotsav 2026 highlighted the importance of cleanliness in everyday life and the role of individual effort and community participation in creating cleaner surroundings. The programme encouraged a shared commitment to responsible habits, public hygiene, and service to society.

Guided by the message “Ek Kadam Swachhata Ki Ore” (One Step Towards Cleanliness), the programme called upon students, faculty, staff, and volunteers to make cleanliness a daily practice and to contribute towards a cleaner, healthier India.

Key activities under Swachhotsav 2026 typically included:

- Cleanliness drive in and around the IIHMR University campus and/or in adopted communities or public spaces.
- Awareness messaging on the importance of waste segregation, proper disposal, and avoiding littering.
- Volunteer engagement through NSS teams, promoting the dignity of sanitation work and collective responsibility.
- Reflection on Gandhian values related to cleanliness, self-discipline, and service to the community.

The event reinforced the idea that cleanliness is not only a civic duty but also a moral and social responsibility. It encouraged participants to adopt sustainable hygiene practices and to act as change-makers in their families, institutions, and communities.

Through Swachhotsav 2026, Sankalp: NSS, IIHMR University reaffirmed its commitment to community service, social responsibility, and nation-building, while honouring the legacy of Mahatma Gandhi on his birth anniversary.
